The Oregon Reading Association
And Mid-Valley Council of the ORA

As a member of ORA and the Mid-Valley Council of the Oregon Reading Association:

- ❖ You are kept informed of current literacy research through state and local yearlong professional development events, websites, links, and publications.
- ❖ You have access to current literacy materials through ORA's Professional Lending Library.
- ❖ You have opportunities to enrich your teaching practice through participating in Teachers as Readers groups, and taking advantage of classroom Literacy Grants.
- ❖ You have multiple inspirational opportunities to network with other literacy professionals.
- ❖ You support community service projects in your community that foster literacy learning for all age groups.
- ❖ You and your students are able to borrow picture books that have been nominated for the Patricia Gallagher Award and help select the winner.
- ❖ You support research-based literacy practices that are aligned with Common Core State Standards.
